

International Trumpet Guild® 2009 COMPOSITION CONTEST FOR SOLO TRUMPET AND ONE OTHER COLLABORATIVE INSTRUMENT OR SOLO TRUMPET, ONE OTHER INSTRUMENT, AND PIANO. THE PIECE MUST BE IN A JAZZ IDIOM.

$1,500 - 1st Place • $750 - 2nd Place

The International Trumpet Guild announces the Composition Contest for Duet (trumpet and one other instrument or trumpet, one other instrument and piano) for the year 2009. Manuscripts meeting the following criteria will be judged by the ITG Composition Contest Committee and a selected panel of composers and performers. Cash prizes of $1,500 and $750 will be awarded to the first and second place winners. The winning compositions will be premiered at the 2009 International Trumpet Guild Conference.

Contest Rules

1. Instrumentation: Duet (trumpet and one other instrument) or Duet (trumpet and one other instrument) and piano
2. Eligibility: The work should be a new composition written for this contest during the 2007 – 2009 period. It should be unpremiered, although a tape or CD recording (live or midi) of a reading is required with the manuscript.
3. Duration: Performance time must be between nine (9) and fourteen (14) minutes.
4. Prizes: A first prize of $1,500 and a second prize of $750 will be awarded respectively. The ITG Composition Contest Committee reserves the right to award a first prize only, a second prize only, or no prize, based on the quality of the submitted compositions. All decisions are final. Winners will receive free registration to the 2009 ITG Conference.
5. Winning scores and parts, either manuscripts or if later published, must carry the statement: designate “First (or Second) Prize Winner, 2009 International Trumpet Guild Composition Contest.”
6. The ITG Archive (c/o Stephen Jones, School of Music, Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, MI 49008) must be given two (2) complete copies of the winning manuscript (score and parts) immediately after winners have been announced (if published later, two free copies of the published edition must be given to the ITG Archive). In addition the winning composer(s) must supply the Chair with a current vitae and photograph before the prize money is awarded. Prize money is not awarded until both these stipulations are met.
7. A list of all qualified entries with the composers’ names and addresses will be published in the ITG Journal. This list may be shared with journals of the International Horn Society, International Trombone Association, International Tuba and Euphonium Association, and with other periodicals.
8. These rules apply only to the 2009 ITG Composition Contest.

Deadline for receiving manuscripts (score and parts) and tape / compact disc is January 15, 2009.

Each entry must be accompanied by a non-refundable $10.00 application fee. A composer may submit more than one composition, but each must be accompanied by the $10.00 fee. Checks must be drawn on or payable through a U.S. bank. Make checks payable to: International Trumpet Guild.
