INTERNATIONAL TRUMPET GUILD

28th Annual 2003 ITG Conference

FUEL YOUR SOUL

May 21-24 • 2003

Texas Christian University ★ Fort Worth, Texas

TCU The School of Music at Texas Christian University is honored and excited to host the 28th Annual 2003 ITG Conference. The conference will encompass four days of concerts, recitals, lectures, competitions, and master classes by the world's foremost classical and jazz trumpet performers and educators. A smorgasbord of instruments, mouthpieces, accessories, music, and CDs will be available for perusal or purchase. Performing artists, presenters, housing, travel, and registration information are detailed on the next several pages of the Journal.

Please make plans to attend and experience four days of exciting events—it will be a great time to see old friends and meet new people who share a passion for the trumpet!

FORT WORTH

Known as the city "Where the West Begins," Fort Worth is a delightful combination of cowboys and culture.

From the historic stockyards at the end of the fabled Chisolm Trail, to the cultural district with its world-class museums, to downtown's lively Sundance Square, you'll find something you've never seen before.

Start downtown, where there's a restaurant to please every palate, live music and theater, two movie houses, dancing, comedy venues and the elegant Bass Performance Hall, a premier opera house that presents everything from the symphony to the Lion King to the Smothers Brothers to Jethro Tull.

Move to the stockyards, where real-life cowboys once drove their stock but now come for down-home cooking and some honkey-tonkin'. Catch a live rodeo, visit the Cowboy Hall of Fame or jump on the Tarantula Train, an authentic steam engine that loops through the city.

The cultural district features three renowned art museums—the Kimbell, the Amon Carter, and the Fort Worth Modern—and the Fort Worth Museum of Science and Natural History. And don't miss the nearby Fort Worth Zoo or Botanic Garden.

And if you venture just outside the city limits, you can enjoy a day at the Texas Motor Speedway, Six Flags over Texas, or Hurricane Harbor. Or catch the PGA Bank of America Colonial Golf Tournament, or a Texas Rangers game. For more information, visit www.fortworth.com

ITG Youth Day • May 20, 2003

ITG Youth Day is being introduced to offer a special day for trumpeters 18 years of age and under. Make plans to see and hear from the world's top trumpet performers and educators as they relate directly to you, the talent of tomorrow.

- Youth Competition (details on the competition can be found on the ITG Web Site; from the Home Page, select "Resources" then "Competitions and Contests.")
- Allen Vizzutti: virtuoso classical and jazz trumpet performer. His continued commitment to education and the value of music in everyday life results each year in an extensive schedule of guest appearances around the world. Allen Vizzutti will give a master class and perform an evening recital with the TCU Wind Ensemble and TCU Jazz Ensemble.
- The United States Army Brass Quintet has performed for a wide variety of audiences and dignitaries in 39 states and 12 foreign countries since its inception in 1972. The quintet is an element of The U.S. Army Band (Pershing's Own) in Washington, D.C.
- Chase Sanborn: Chase is active in the recording studios and jazz clubs around Toronto. He has written two popular books, "Brass Tactics" and "Jazz Tactics." His master class, "Why is a dominant seventh chord like a cheeseburger?," based on his best-selling book, will make jazz improvisation fun and comprehensible.
- Kris Chesky, PhD., Director of Education and Research at the Texas Center for Music & Medicine. Dr. Chesky will discuss health factors associated with trumpet playing such as mouthpiece forces, intraoral pressures, performance anxiety and stress, and sound exposure.
