The 2004 MILE HIGH International Trumpet Guild Conference

REACHING NEW HEIGHTS

The Robert and Judi Newman Center for the Performing Arts

The 2004 International Trumpet Guild Conference

(June 15-19, Denver, Colorado)

comes full circle from its roots to the University of Denver's Lamont School of Music, proud host of the first National Trumpet Symposiums, the direct forerunner of our present ITG conferences, which began at Lamont in 1968. Alan Hood, Denver, Colorado, the Mile High City, is located near the foothills of the Rocky Mountains and offers its visitors an exciting range of cultural attractions, dining and nightlife, shopping, sports and recreational activities. Downtown Denver is home to The Denver Performing Arts Complex, the second largest performing arts center in the nation with eight theatres. Denver enjoys a mild, dry and arid climate with 300 days of sunshine a year. The 16th Street Mall is a mile-long pedestrian center lined with a wide variety of shops, restaurants, cafes and favorite night spots including the Denver Pavilions, along with micro-breweries and brew pubs, all within walking distance of each other in downtown Denver.

A short drive to the west is the scenic beauty of Rocky Mountain National Park, home to Trail Ridge Road, the highest continuous paved highway in the world which crosses over the Continental Divide at over two miles above sea level. Other excursions into the mountains of Colorado include the Victorian village of Georgetown, Mount Evans at 14,260 feet elevation, and to the south, Pikes Peak country, which includes the Air Force Academy and the Garden of the Gods.

Popular attractions for any visitor to Denver include The Denver Zoo, the Denver Botanic Gardens, The Denver Museum of Nature & Science, Denver Art Museum, Red Rocks Amphitheater, The US Mint and Six Flags Elitch Gardens Theme Park. For additional information, please visit us at www.denver.org.
